

OII Awards Brian Hill Memorial 4-H Scholarships

June 15, 2012 – Kamloops, BC

The board of directors and staff of Ownership Identification Inc (OII) are proud to award the Brian Hill Memorial Scholarship to two deserving individuals.

Allison Speller of Monte Lake and Amy Stafford of Williams Lake, BC are the recipients for 2012.

Allison Speller is enrolled at Thompson Rivers University of Kamloops and will begin studies in the fall of 2012. Speller has been a member of the Pritchard 4-H Beef Club for 9 years completing numerous projects and holding various executive positions. Allison also serves as provincial director on the Canadian Junior Angus Association board of directors.

Amy Stafford is enrolled at the University of Fraser Valley beginning classes in September of 2012. Stafford has been a 4-H member for 10 years and has attained multiple achievements and aggregates, while serving positions such as club President and BC 4-H Ambassador during her rewarding career in 4H.

“These two scholarship recipients are role model 4-H members.” says Bob Miller, General Manager of OII. “Both have participated in numerous club, provincial and national events, as well as, extensive community involvement. We at OII, are privileged to be able to assist our province’s youth continue their education involving agriculture.”

OII wish to thank all applicants who applied for the Brian Hill Memorial Scholarship in 2012.

Two $500.00 scholarships are awarded annually. For more information and application forms please go to the web pages of BC 4H, BC Cattlemen’s Association or Ownership Identification Inc.

OII wish to thank BC 4H Council, BCCA, Sharon Hill and families for their cooperation and support of this venture.