

OII Awards Brian Hill Memorial Scholarships

June 2, 2016 – Kamloops, BC

The board of directors and staff of Ownership Identification Inc (OII) are proud to award the Brian Hill Memorial Scholarship to two deserving individuals.

Samantha Kerr, Kamloops, and Cody Schweb, Salmon Arm, BC are the successful recipients for 2016.

Kerr is enrolled at Idaho State University where she will begin agricultural studies in the fall of 2016. Samantha has been a 4-H member and a member of BCHSRA and NHSRA for seven years. Kerr has successfully competed in many provincial and international events, receiving multiple awards as well as, holding various executive positions. Samantha currently serves as President for both previously named associations.

Cody Schweb is currently a 10 year 4H beef club member and is enrolled at Thompson River University for 2017. During his time in 4H, Schweb has attained multiple achievements while serving the leadership role as club President, and will receive his 4H honor pin this year. Cody is active in high school sports, primarily football, as well as trade related programs.

“These two scholarship recipients are role model representatives of today’s youth” says Bob Miller, OII General Manager “Both members have participated in numerous 4H, Provincial and National associated projects as well as, extensive community and school involvement.”

We at OII are privileged to be able to assist our province’s youth in their pursuit of education involving agriculture.”

OII wish to thank all applicants who applied for the Brian Hill Memorial Scholarship in 2016.

Two $500.00 scholarships are awarded annually. For more information and application forms please go to the web pages of BC 4H, BC Cattlemen’s Association or Ownership Identification Inc.

OII wish to thank BC 4H Council, BCCA, Sharon Hill and families for their cooperation and support of this venture.
