

OII Awards Brian Hill Memorial 4-H Scholarships

May 15, 2014 – Kamloops, BC

The board of directors and staff of Ownership Identification Inc (OII) are proud to award the Brian Hill Memorial Scholarship to two deserving individuals.

Ashley Gilliland of Delta, BC and Mathew Armes of Williams Lake, BC are the recipients for 2014.

Ashley Gilliland is enrolled at the University of Alberta and will begin her BSC in Animal Health studies in the fall of 2014. Gilliland has been a member of the Fraser Valley 4-H Beef Club for five years, successfully completing numerous projects, receiving numerous awards too many to mention, as well as, holding various executive positions. Ashley also serves as captain of her high school cheerleading team, volunteers at numerous events such as the annual Terry Fox run and plays rep soccer.

Mathew Armes is currently enrolled at Oklahoma Panhandle University at Goodwell, Oklahoma and in September 2014, will be entering his second year in the field of Pre-Veterinary Medicine.

Armes has been a member of the Springhouse 4H Beef Club, Williams Lake, BC for nine years and has attained multiple achievements while serving the position as club President for three terms during his rewarding career in 4H.

Mathew is an active member of his College Rodeo team, as well as, a participating member of the BC Rodeo Association.

“These two scholarship recipients are role model 4-H members.” says Bob Miller, OII General Manager “Both members have participated in numerous club and provincial projects including extensive community volunteer involvement.”

We at OII are privileged to be able to assist our province’s youth in their pursuit of education involving agriculture.”

OII wish to thank all applicants who applied for the Brian Hill Memorial Scholarship in 2014.

Two $500.00 scholarships are awarded annually. For more information and application forms please go to the web pages of BC 4H, BC Cattlemen’s Association or Ownership Identification Inc.

OII wish to thank BC 4H Council, BCCA, Sharon Hill and families for their cooperation and support of this venture.
